SUBJECT: J.P. MASCARO & SONS BRINGS “DUMPO” AND HALLOWEEN CHEER TO NARBERTH BOROUGH’S ANNUAL PARADE AND TRUNK-OR-TREAT

Narberth, PA – October 30, 2025 – J.P. Mascaro & Sons, a leading Montgomery County-based waste services provider, joined the community spirit yesterday at Narberth Borough’s Annual Halloween Parade and Trunk-or-Treat event.

The festivities kicked off at 6:15 p.m. on the 100 block of North Narberth Avenue, with costumed participants marching to Borough Hall. There, the celebration continued with a lively “trunk-or-treat” activity. Inside Borough Hall, J.P. Mascaro’s beloved mascot, “Dumppo,” delighted children and families while distributing Halloween goodie bags generously donated by the company.

“We’re proud to support the Narberth community and create fun, memorable moments for local families,” said Brad Elwell, “Events like this strengthen the bonds between residents and the businesses that serve them every day.”

Founded and headquartered in Montgomery County, Pennsylvania, J.P. Mascaro & Sons is one of the nation’s largest privately owned waste service companies and an industry leader in sustainability and innovation.
