SUBJECT: MASCARO AWARDED A MULTITUDE OF CONTRACTS

Regional solid waste removal contractor, J. P. Mascaro & Sons, has announced it has been recently awarded a multitude of contracts. The contracts are situated in Montgomery, Bucks, Delaware, Luzerne and Lackawanna counties. The contracts provide for a variety of services which include trash removal, recycle collection and processing, sludge disposal and composting.

The contracts will be serviced by Mascaro's Bridgeport, Franconia, Scranton, and Nanticoke divisions. The customers include the Borough of Souderton, Marcus Hook, West Conshohocken, Jessup, and Old Forge, as well as Bucks County Sewer Authority.

J. P. Mascaro & Sons is the largest provider of municipal services in the local region. They possess a strategic infrastructure of collection terminals, transfer stations, recycling centers, landfills and a composting facility.

Mascaro is a fourth-generation family-owned and operated business managed by the sons of the founder J. P. Mascaro Sr. as well as a host of his grandchildren.

Founded and headquartered in Lower Providence Township, Montgomery County, J. P. Mascaro & Sons is the largest privately-owned waste company in the Northeast. Established by Joseph P. Mascaro, Sr., nearly 60 years ago, the company is now led by his sons and third-generation Mascaro family members. Mascaro's infrastructure has positioned it as a leading provider of municipal services throughout the area, delivering high-quality trash and recycling solutions to thousands of homes, businesses and industries.
